

Table 1

MAY DAYS PICNIC and related events
May 1st to 5th All Events FREE!
	Event	About	Venue	Time
Wed. 01/05/2019	May Day Rally	Looking for a musician to keep us stepping lively. Last year, IWW member Chris did this with his banjo.	Wednesday 1st May: Celebrate Global May Day. Festive parade from George Square 11.45 to Buchanan Steps for 12.15 Rally - Music, poetry, stalls, brief speeches, and open mic.	May Weds May 1st
Thur. 02/05/2019	Britain on Film: Protest (80 mins)	At a time of intense public activism both in the UK and across the globe, explore the varied and fascinating history of public protest in the UK with our new archive film programme: Britain on Film: Protest!	Mary Barbour Suite in the Pearce Institute, Govan. Near Govan tube station. Organised Plantation Productions	Thursday 2nd May, from 1.30 -- 4pm.
Thur. 02/05/2019	Time and time again (10mins)	The Seniors Film Club Plantation Productions	Mary Barbour Suite in the Pearce Institute, Govan. Near Govan tube station. Organised Plantation Productions	Thursday 2nd May, from 1.30 -- 4pm.
Thur. 02/05/2019	Radical History Walk	Thursday 2nd May: History Walk 5.45 George Square going to Glasgow Green to end at 7pm via 4 other stops relevant to working class history and libertarian socialism.	Start George Square	Thursday, 2 May 2019 from 5:45-7:00
Thur. 02/05/2019	Ludlow: Greek Americans in the Colorado Coal War Film Screening	The story of the Ludlow Massacre and the Ten Day War in 1914 Colorado with a special focus on the Greek strikers and their leader Louis Tikas. The film was released in 2016 in Greece where it received multiple awards The story of Greek immigrants who were brought to the Colorado coal mines to work under inhuman conditions and who, together with immigrants from 22 other countries, revolted and wrote a proud page of American labor history, known as the Colorado Coal War of 1913-14.	Glasgow Autonomous Space Unit 11, 53 Kilbirnie Street, G5 8JD Glasgow,	Thursday, 2 May 2019 from 7:30 10:00
Fri.03/05/2019	100 Years Of Housing Struggle Los Angeles	Talk workshop. What have we to learn from Los Angeles, with activist, author and educator, Andrea Gibbons. A former tenant organiser in LA. Speaking about her work in LA, as well as her activities in the UK.	Kinning Park Complex, 43 Cornwall St, Kinning G41 1BA	Fri. 3 May 7:00 till 9:00
Sat. 04/05/2019	Salt Of The Earth Film (94 mins)	Showing of "Salt of the Earth" (1954), about women's militancy in support of the miners strike of 1951 in Zintown, New Mexico-- one of the first pictures to advance the feminist social and political point of view; screening organised by Glasgow May Days https://www.facebook.com/groups/416201145855377/f	The Quaker Meeting House 38 Elmbank Cres, Glasgow G2 4PS	Saturday May 4th 2:00
Sat. 04/05/2019	AT THE SPACE saturday		The Space, 257 London Road, Glasgow G40 1PE
	Humanifesto	3.00 Humanifesto – a different democracy	The Space	Saturday May 4th 3:00
	Food Politics	3.15 Food Politics – led by Zarina Ahmed, CEMVO Environment Officer and climate campaigner	The Space	Saturday May 4th 3:15
	Transport for People	4.00 Transport for the actual people – led by Ellie Harrison, Get Glasgow Moving campaign	The Space	Saturday May 4th 4:00
	Can Glasgow Flourish?	4.45 Can Glasgow Flourish? – Eco-nomics led by Common Space writer David Carr with inputs from KatherineTrebeck, Wellbeing Economy Alliance and Bob Gillespie, Global Justice	The Space	Saturday May 4th 4:45
MAY DAY PICNIC	AT THE GREEN Sunday
Sun. 05/05/2019	AT FREE WHEEL NORTH	Sunday 5th May at 2.30 pm a traditional family and friends food-sharing picnic on the Glasgow Green next to Wheel North bicycle park, east of Peoples Palace; music, poets, stalls, and open mic	Free Wheel North, Glasgow Green, At Templeton St, Glasgow G40 1AT
	May Picnic	Stalls Shared food. Music. Dance. Bike rides Mask Making and Cardboard club. Tardis Project. Technology http://mayday.link/2019/04/04/may-day-picnic-2019/	Free Wheel North	From 2:30
	Music	A variety of performers through out the day	Free Wheel North	From 2:30
	Red and Black Song Club	Performing at Picnic. Come and join the Red and Black Song Club rehearsing for May Day on the Green. No singing or musical experience necessary! https://www.facebook.com/events/373992469878001/	Free Wheel North
	Woodcraft folk	Have fun and learn with the woodcraft folk. Whose aim is to have great fun, but also to try to develop children's self-confidence and build their awareness of society around them.	Free Wheel North	From 2:30
	Mask Making fun	Make a mask to scare the city administrators	Free Wheel North	From 2:30
	Cardboard Club	Building things with cardboard (say no more)	Free Wheel North	From 2:30
	The Tardis Project	The Common Good Awareness Project, will be on hand to explore ideas for building our Tardis and future workshops.	Free Wheel North	From 2:30
	S.A.N.E.	S.A.N.E. Programme for Sunday May 5th 3pm to 5pm Glasgow Green and our Common Good - counter-planning session. Meet at Glasgow Green May Day picnic site. Building on Saturday's Humanifesto talks, Glasgow Life want the park to make money – local people want it to make a happier, healthier community. Also, bring your camera and join a photo survey of the green, taking in the closure of the winter gardens and what its future could be.	Free Wheel North	3pm to 5pm From 2:30
	Stalls	Stalls to be announced	Free Wheel North	From 2:30
Updates	Updates may be added nearer time			